

"Tuskegee Airmen: Journey to Flight" Press Image Credits

Marcellus G. Smith, Louisville, Kentucky, and Roscoe C. Brown, New York, NY Class 44-C. P-SC#11, "Tootsie," in background was assigned to Lowell Steward. Ramitelli, Italy, March 1945. Courtesy of the Library of Congress, Toni Frissell Collection.

Col. Benjamin O. Davis (left), Commanding Officer, 332nd Fighter Group, Class 42-C; Edward C. Gleed (right), Lawrence, KS, Class 42-K, Group Operations Officer. P-5/D in background, "Creamer's Dream," generally flown by Charles L. White, St. Louis MO, Class 44-C Ramitelli, Italy, March 1945. Courtesy of the Library of Congress, Toni Frissell Collection.

Sgt. William P. Bostic, 301st F.S. in control tower. Control tower directed traffic with red, amber, and green lights and a flare gun to indicate special situations. Ramitelli, Italy, March 1945. Courtesy of the Library of Congress, Toni Frissell Collection.

Woodrow W. Crockett (standing) Edward C. Gleed, Lawrence (seated), KS, Class 42-K, Group Operations Officer. Ramitelli, Italy, March 1945. Courtesy of the Library of Congress, Toni Frissell Collection.

IMAGE USAGE GUIDELINES:

All photographs must be credited as listed. Usage of press images is limited to members of the media for editorial use only and does not include authorization for commercial or public usage.

Media Contact: Brenna Hamilton
The California Museum
bhamilton@californiamuseum.org
(916) 651-0934