California's Hall of Fame inductees

Thursday, May 29, 2008 - 06:37 PM
By: 680News staff

Jack Nicholson, Jane Fonda, Quincy Jones and Dave Brubeck are just a few big names being honoured by California's hall of fame.

Also being inducted to the hall of fame are Theodor Geisel, also known as Dr. Seuss, fitness pioneer Jack Llanne, celebrity chef Alice Waters and several others.

The induction ceremony December 10th in Sacramento could be especially interesting for Anjelica Huston.

Two of her men are being honoured, one past and one current.

Her husband, sculptor Robert Graham is in this year's California hall of fame class.

Before marrying Graham, Huston's other long-time love was Jack Nicholson.

She left him when he got someone else pregnant.
