America's iconic jazz pianist 87-year-old Dave Brubeck is a 2008 inductee into the California Hall of Fame, it was announced Wednesday.

Brubeck, born in Concord and raised in Lone, graduated in 1942 from College of the Pacific, now known as University of the Pacific.

In 1959, the Dave Brubeck Quartet released "Take Five," its signature piece and one of several enduring jazz standards.

Brubeck and his son, Christopher, have collaborated on a world premiere set for April 2 in Stockton.

"Landscapes of Light & Sound," a tribute to photographer Ansel Adams, has been commissioned by the Stockton Symphony.

Brubeck and 11 other Californians will be inducted Dec. 10 into the Hall of Fame at the California Museum for History, Women and the Arts.

The others are Jane Fonda, Theodor Geisel ("Dr. Seuss"), Robert Graham, Quincy Jones, Jack LaLanne, Dorothea Lange, Julia Morgan, Jack Nicholson, Linus Pauling, Leland Stanford and Alice Waters.
