

California Hall of Fame FAQ Sheet

What is the California Hall of Fame?

The California Museum's California Hall of Fame was established in 2006 to honor legendary people who embody California's innovative spirit and have made their mark on history. The California Hall of Fame is a landmark destination featured in the Museum, which serves to inspire visitors by exhibiting the diverse, creative and extraordinary stories of trailblazers, leaders and legends who have called California home.

The California Hall of Fame celebrates inductees by:

- Installing the inductees into the California Hall of Fame in a formal state ceremony each year, at which inductees (or their families, if a posthumous award) receive the Spirit of California medal;
- Making inductees and their accomplishments part of the permanent record in the California State Archives;
- Recording the unique stories and personal achievements of inductees in an exhibit at the California Museum, serving as the visual, encyclopedic record of the California Hall of Fame, to which new inductees are added each year; and
- Highlighting the inspirational achievements of inductees through a year-round education campaign.

Where is it located?

The California Hall of Fame is both a signature program and a permanent exhibit at the California Museum, located at 1020 O Street in Sacramento.
