History	The California Museum opened in September 1998 to showcase the materials of the California State Archives. Over the years, the vision and mission have grown to make the Museum a premier cultural destination with a goal of educating and inspiring visitors with the richness and diversity of California history, arts and culture.
Mission	A self-supporting 501(c)3 non-profit, the California Museum — home of the California Hall of Fame — engages, educates and enlightens people about California’s rich history, its diversity and its unique influence on the world of ideas, innovation, art and culture. Through interactive experiences, the Museum inspires visitors to make a mark on history.

Education

A core program of the Museum is civic education, and a special focus is placed on serving the young people who will become the future voters, decision makers and leaders of California. Approximately 25,000 students visit the Museum on K-12 field trip tours annually. For details on current programming, visit californiamuseum.org/education.
