DAY OF THE DEAD: ART OF DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS 2015

AUGUST 18, 2015 - JANUARY 3, 2016

A journey through life, love and death, "Day of the Dead: Art of Día de los Muertos" is an all-new exhibit featuring contemporary installations by California artists Francisco Franco, John S. Huerta, David Lozeau, Rob-O and Mary Southall.

Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month, the exhibit highlights the Mexican cultural tradition of honoring deceased loved ones each year on November 1 and 2 by creating calaveras de azúcar (sugar skulls), altares de muertos (altars of the dead) and ofrendas (offerings), which has evolved from the Aztecs to modern day California.

Members of the public are invited to celebrate loved ones lost by participating in an adjacent Community Altar and leaving a photograph or small remembrance through January 3, 2016.
