WELCOME TO THE OFFICIAL HOME OF THE CALIFORNIA DREAM

Official home of the California dream and the California Hall of Fame, the California Museum is a non-profit 501(c)3 institution educating visitors on California's rich history and unique contributions to the world through innovation, the arts and culture. Through interactive exhibits and engaging public programs, the Museum inspires visitors to make their own mark on history.

Created in partnership with California Secretary of State, the Museum opened in 1998 as the public showplace for the California State Archives. Today, the Museum emphasizes stories commonly overlooked, reflecting the state's diverse population and the cultural contributions of all Californians.

The Museum launched the California Hall of Fame with former first Lady Maria Shriver and Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger to celebrate Californians who have changed the world. Governor Edmund G Brown Jr and First Lady Anne Gust Brown now serve as Honorary Co-Chairs of the Museum and the California Hall of Fame, bringing their appreciation of the state's past and present to the Museum.
